My STORY

I believe that every individual holds the seed of excellence within, waiting to be explored and nurtured to reach their highest potential .

Driven by passion for inspiring excellence and explore excellence within , i expanded my horizon in 2017 from Operations manager to Learning and Development professional . Acquired various certifications and ventured into industry .

My drive for personal growth led me to pursue advanced training in behavioral transformation, taking me to the Image Consultant Business Institute (ICBI), the School of Excellence, and now the International Association of Facilitators (IAF).

I began my journey as a process standardization consultant, helping businesses streamline workflows and enhance customer experience through consistent service delivery.
